CURING A COUGH

When you have a cough, it is simply nature's warning that some of the organs of the system are not properly performing their work. In are not properly performing their work. In most cases, it will be found to be the liver. When the liver or kidneys or perhaps both fall to properly perform their excrotory functions, it is done in part by the mucous membrane. This sends a discharge of mucous or phlegm into the throat, hung and howels; constitution follows, and the phlegm which should be ejected, remains until it is absorbed, thus poisoning the spalem. A dry cough is a symptom of a disordered liver. A physicial statement: "In the freatment of lung and bronstatement: "In the treatment of lung and brochial diseases the liver is often implicited to such an extent that a hepatic remedy becomes recessing in effecting a cure of the lungs. THE CHEAP LONG HAUL.

The one object of the exactment of the interstate bill was to stop the cheap long haul. In the cheep long haul places on the railways at a distance from terminal points saw, or thought they saw, discrimination against themselves, Why, it was asked, should the railways be per-mitted to charge more for shorter than for longer distances; more, for example, from Chi-cago to Portland or San Francisco than to Points short of these terminals? And, in gen-round state to these terminals? And, in gain-eral, why should the longer hand anywhere be performed for less money than the shorter one? These questions seemed reasonable to the scentry, and the interstine law was demanded as a remedy for what could not be regarded in any other light than as a great abuse. In a mul-ticular, when there have interstined its statements. any other ingli than a says there has been injentional dis-crimination in favor of or against particular places. As a rule, no doubt, the railways have been "worked" for the supposed benefit of their cwners, so as forget the most money that could be bad out of the total trails, or for the interest: of their managers, to such out some "inside". of their managers, to suggest some "inside" of their managers, to surjout some "inside" scheme; but much of this has appeared unjust to the public, as discrimina for will always appear unjust, no matter what the motive.

And yet the greater charge for the short than for the long hand has not always been inspired by motives that would not hear examination. In some instances the railways have found this policy a practical necessity. For example, the transcontinental lines have made lower rates from the East to terminal rolling on the Pacific. from the East to terminal coluts on the Pacific coast than to parer points in the interior-finding it necessary to do so in order to hold the trails. The new law now interrupts this by protibiting a lower rate for the lower than for the shorter hand, and the consequence is that the roade lose the trails. Not for years has there been so much activity in ocean freights at Now To it for Pacific ports as now. This proves that the reads, in making lower rates from the East to points on the Pacific seaboard than to nearer points in the injerior, were pursuing a policy that was necessary to their business. Losing their traffic at terminal points, a further consequence is that they must make up the loss by higher charges at interior points. This, for the Pacific alone, is the rebor and of the interstate nommerce bill. The bill was expected to reduce the rates from the East to our interior points to the level of those made heretofore to San Fran-piace and Portland. But in fact it has advanced the rates to San Francisco and Portiand, with-out reducing them to points in the interior; and more than this, by cutting off the through business of the reads it compels them to charge more for local or way business, or business to points on their lines which cannot be affected by cean transportation, than they did before. So it is proved already that however just it is as a general principle that a long haul should not be performed for less money than a shorter one, the principle never belies is subject to limitations. In fact if Portland and San Fran-gisco were not on the scanbard they would never heve had lower rates from the East than interfor soints have obtained, no: would they now be placed on the same footing with interior points ider the interstate law. In spite of all the abuses of rallway discrim-hadion, the cheap rate for the long haut has been of immense service, particularly to the country west of the Mississippi. It has drawn distances together and multiplied the benefits conferred upon mankind by the railroad; it has made ferms in love, Nebrasha and Kansas worth $50 am acre that without it would not be worth more than $10; it has brought the comfor s of life within reach of vast numbers in loform of life within reach of vast numbers in localities where otherwise these things could not have leen obtained. It is liable to ahase, undoubtedly; but in all probability it will be found from he working of the intertate Lw these aluses on the waste overmatched by benefits which that law has interrupted. Yet it is well that the law has been enacted; there was even a necessily for its enactment, since the experience that will be obtained through it will be of high value and never could have been obtained in any other never could have been obtained in any other

A FRAUDULENT SCHOOL.

There is profound indignation in Benton county over the failure of the trustees of Garville college to keep faith with the state; and it must be said that the felling is entirely justified by the facts in the case. The action of the trustees in repudinting a bargain of their own proposing, fairly made in all respects, its nothing short of that dishonesty, not at all relieved to the country trustee in its decrease. Under the by the pretext urged in its defense. Under the terms of acceptance, agreed to by the logislature, the people of Benton county have subscribed $20,600 for a new college building to be erected on the farm adjacent to the city, their test button to seeing permanents for force intent being to secure permanently for Car-vallis the advantages of a state school, and now, through stubbornness and dishonesty out of the results of the effort is an aggravation indeed.

The State Agricultural college, so-called, has been a fraud from the leginning. The funds provided for its support by the general government and by the state were secured for the Scuth Metheciat school a. The recent action of the trustees is no doubt due to the fact that a large annual ap mopriation for state agricultural colleges from the gen-eral government is expected hereafter. It is the government. Is expected introduct. It is the state agricultural college, to get the public mener as in the past, and to spend it as in the past. The scheme is one which, in our fadginent, cannot, as certainly it, should not, succeed. RANDALL WILL STAY.

It is amusing to note how anxious our democratic brethren have been to eee Mr. Samuel Randall gerrymandered out of congress. As the leader of the democrate who oppose the demand for revenue tariif as against the dectrine of protection, he is condistly hated by the larger faction of the party. But the republicans, as supporters of protection, oppreciate his services; and moreover they greatly enjoy the privilege of being witnesses of the commotion which he

the keeping up in the democratic rank.

The Pennrylvania legiciature has been re-arranging the congressional districts of the state. The first thought was to leave Randall out, as it would be a great deal of trouble to fix up a district that would given democratic majority. At this prospect there was general rejecting among the democraty of the country. It was this, perhaps, that caused the republicans of the legislature to pause and finally to re-consider. Pennsylvania is for protection above all things else, and a democratic protectionist from that state, especially a man of ability like Bandall, can do the cause—note service than a

So the legislature, imitating the strategy em-So the legislature, imitating the strategy employed by our democratic brethren in the South, when they want to prevent the election of republicans to congress, have made for Mr. Randall a "shoesting" district in Philadelphia, massing in it all the "longh" parts of the city that they could bring into contact with each other by zig-zag lines. It is amusing to note how unhappy it makes our democratic brethren, and how bitterly they condomn a proceeding that ought to remind them of heir own districts in Mississippi and South Carolina, so ingentously and wonderfully constructed. So, as the demoierfully constructed. So, as the dem and wondertury constructed. So, as the democrate of the South have gerrymendered into congress a whole troop of members, the republicans of the North have added one more to the flet. Parties prejudice is fast disappearing from the politics of our baypy country.

APPLYING THE LAW.

The Roston Hera'd says there is reason for thinking that Mr. Charles Francis Adams repre-sented, in a fair degree, the ideasof most of the railread menagors of the country in saying that the proposed to apply the new interstate com-merce law in entire good faith on the road over which he has control. There are two reasons for this. First, the new law supplies many of the companies with an excuse for breaking itregular and secrel mrangements, which were sivers more or less distrated than dwere often only made from the four that, if they were not made, tival reads would obtain an advantage. Second, great lines of ra lway under one system are much more likely to be managed on equitaare much more likely to a managed on equationable principles than smaller cryonizations. The business is so large and the interests involved so numerous that descrimination between shippers cannot readily be made. So far as administration is concerned, it is much easier in such circumstances. comstances to lay down general rules, which emissioners to by down general roles, which shall apply in all cases. Lan attempt to make preferential exceptions. On this account the Herald believes that most of the managers of the great railwaps of the country welcome the new law as a means of lightening their duties.

There is great indignation at Chicago because the ratircade, acting in concert, have increased the rate of mileage tickets from $20 to $35 per the rate of mileage lickets from $20 to $35 per 1000 miles. This increases the expenses of mercentile houses that employ dummers, and there is loud protest against it. The raitroads answer that they are prohibited by the interstate commerce have from granting special terms to any class, and consequently they must pet up the rates heretofore enjoyed by drummers to the figures which they charge the general public. This seems reasonable, but the mercantile, people are full of wrath about it. This law takes in everybody. Like the colored brother's coon trap, it "ketches em both acomin' and agwine."

The czar of Russia has escaped assassination, but probably he has not forgotten that his father survived four attempts to take his life one being made by Zaragazon take his ine-one being made by Zaragazon, in 1886, in St. Potersburg; a second by Berechovsky the fol-lowing year at Paris; the third by Sotovich, in 1878, at St. Petersburg, the fourth occurring soon after at Moscow. Yet all these were to end in his falling a victim to the assassin's bemb in March, 1881.

If the Union Pacific can secure the Oregon & Transcontinental company's holdings of Oregon Hallway & Navigation stock, an effort in which direction is being made, the problem of securing control of the O. The tariff of through rates prepared by the trans continental systems bids fair to produce results similar to what we had imanined. That is to say, the rates between the extrame west and thoses local dates between the extrame west and thoses local dates between the extrame west and thoses from the Pacific to the Atlantio, or vice webs—baye been advanced so per cept. Under such considers will go by way of our transcontinental radiwins. The competition to which these systems are exposed is twofold: First, that by steamer and rad via the istinuous of Panama, and iscoon, the Canadian Pacific rallway line. Considering that the freight has to be handed-dipt times in going by way of Panama, we should suppose that competition upon this line might be kept within reasonable bounds. But the Canadian Pacific rad has the advantage of possessing a through system from Hontreal to Fuger bound and for the purpose of exiting this if would, no do lib, be willing to make exceptionally favocable, arrangements with those who wished to treat with it. More than this, the Canadian road is cutterly relieved of the existing the stay of the party to our American competitions which apply to our American competitions which apply to our American competitions which apply to our American companies in consequence of masings of the interestance of california, will come fast over the large and and seventially a very large proportion of the lineual business of Washington territory, Ore.com, and even California, will come fast over the Canadian Pacific line. That is in say, that railway company will keep its artes as they are, or make a slight salvance, and yet be able to greatly underful.

INDIGNATION AT CORVALLIS They will Try to Hold the Coilege Property on a Technical Error in theh Own Propositings.

Convairis, March 21.—The relation between the State Agricultural gollege and the M. E. Church South was created, by an oct of the legislature of October 28, 1870, which gave permanent control of that college to the Methodust, the college then being located at Corvilia. This college was a corporation instituted to conduct a literary first fullow for that church, and its transfers was accommend to paragion instituctur to connect a interry institution for that church, and its trustees were appointed by the annual conferences of the church. In 1870 the trustees accepted control of the agrical unal col-lege, which thereafter became, an integral part of the church college. In September, 1881, the Col-legh objects of the Michael College, South, as from as practicable after the appointments on the part of the state are made.

The section of the beard of regrets, which was encorsed in those resolutions, was taken in August, 1824, and looked to deeding the college fair in to the state, provided the state would assist in establishing a chair for the mechanic arts. The deed was not made, however, because the board had authorized a committed instead of the proper dilects of the corporation to make it econvorance. The beard, following it e directic of the Dayton conference, made an effort to raise the $25,000. Rev. J. B. N. Bell was appointed agent for that purpose by the conference, but the leffort falled only $3000 being secured. On January 29, 1856, the board had a specific meeting and ado sted a position that the mandate of the conference be compiled with. The secretary, Mr. Janies A. Cauthorn, then notified Gob. Moody of this action, who informed the legislature therpof through the governor as follows:

The indignation here is great. The majority of the board was burnt in eff gy last night. The preacher members are holder guarterly meetings
here, but they are not rece ved with great favor.
The people here have labared I and to secure the college, and this move is regarded as tenting to cause delay. Nobody doubts much the ultimate celeat of the church, but the action is barastor, Leaving out of view the technicalities; relief on to invalidate the franker to the stace the ham fact is notorious that the courte gave up to the state the college. If it has any legal stee hing at all it court it is by virtue of irregularities in the precedings of its own sgrands. Lack of all these questions, however, and one that will probably be decided in favor of the states, whether a legitature can convey a state institution in perprintly to any church. The probability is that the origina set of is void so far as it pretends to grand; their is perpetuity.

CHANGING LEGGTHIC LIGHT WIRES.—The first car load of wire and othermaterial for lighting this city by electricity is somewhere on the road between council bluffs and this city and its expected to arrive here on. Wednesday. The large wires radialing from the present works of the Electric Light council by the fine factor down and transferred to the right yet the new works near Weidler's mill, as the largestwine must be access the dynamos. Several proof car loads are on the way, and before yet more care to be shall have a few more wires straig around his streets. During the removal of the heavy sites the departed lines are becassarily disturbed of the leght on his capacity they appear to be "shut off" by a line found table the second of the first streets of the council with the council of the safety alters and the council with the council with the safe of the council of the safety in the capital of the target wires getting crested.

The Old Gricker Grounds.—The long de-

New Fashtonish hart.—The trout fishing season begins on Fiday next, and there will be a great overhauling of rods, reels, lines, crosts and dies within the exit few days. Sidmon rob will probably be at a premium. But these war up not want to smear themselves and their tackle with the killing but many batt can have a choice of many kinds of artificial but. There are red rubber imitations of the old-fashioned and e worm, dear to the membry of all dispersion, which may prove killing; there are artificial firegs, grassing-pers, grabs, classifish and minnows, besides some thremains to be seen low all these things will go down with the wary trout. If a man bury a whole series of these batts, he can start an entrendencial muscum with them if the troug work to be at them.

First DAX's Firsting.—The warm, samp days museum with them if the troit won't bite at them.

FIRST DAY'S FISHING. The warm, sunny days of the past week have filled the heart of 1 as angier
with a loy, not wholly unalloyed by a fear of cold rains coming to spoil the legitimate sport of the First. About twenty ardent spirite, impation for another chance to curred their lines, took the little steamer Sellward yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, bent on making a try for salmon trout in the Williamette. The swift little craft and its obliging cuptain deposited small parties, of from who to four, all slong both sides of the river from.
Milwautic up, as far as Oswogo. The day was perfect, but on comparing notes on the return king, about 5 o'clock, it was found the sport was not, the results being, in all cases, very meagre, twentiging anxiety one fir to a man.

Intely one had care, sety heapto, because the latter one had no set to a man.

Not the low's Fault.—There was a fively runaway down Third street yesterday, winding up with a capsua and smashed buggy at the corner of F. A messenger boy had been sent to take he lorse and buggy from the Home stable to some customer. The horse was fresh and the boy coal not control him, and hence the smashin. When the owner of the turnett arrived at the scene of the wreck he naturally began to scold the boy, but a number of the speciators told tim that he had no call to abuse the boy, as he had done all in his power to prevent the sceldent. They had wat hed his career down the street and he had nayed his part like a man. The boy eccaped without a scratch, and was not a bit rightened either.

MILLINGEN.—There are now on exhibition to Stratch, and was not a bit frightened either.

MILLINERY,—There are now on exh bitton in Mirs. A. E. West's window, 47 Washington street,
